- C. Canada and BC signed onto the Canada-British Columbia Canada-Wide Early Learning and Childcare Agreement on July 7, 2021, in which they commit to work collaboratively with Indigenous Governing Bodies and organizations to implement the agreement and to ensure support Indigenous-led, culturally safe and accessible Early Learning and Child Care programming in BC;
- D. on April 1, 2022, the Province's early learning and child care programs, services, responsibilities and accountabilities transitioned from the Ministry of Children and Family Development (MCFD) to the newly created Ministry of Education and Child Care (MECC);
- E. as per item 4.19 in the Declaration Act Action Plan, the Province is committed to collaborate with First Nations to implement a distinctions-based approach to child care and to support and move forward jurisdiction over child care for First Nations who want and need it in B.C.;
- F. the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, which the government of Canada has adopted without qualification, and has, alongside the government of BC, passed legislation committing to implement, affirms:
Article 13(1): Indigenous peoples have the right to revitalize, use, develop and transmit to future generations their histories, languages, oral traditions, philosophies, writing systems and literatures, and to designate and retain their own names for communities, places and persons;
Article 14(1) Indigenous peoples have the right to establish and control their educational systems and institutions providing education in their own languages, in a manner appropriate to their cultural methods of teaching and learning. (2) Indigenous individuals, particularly children, have the right to all levels and forms of education of the State without discrimination. (3) States shall, in conjunction with indigenous peoples, take effective measures, in order for indigenous individuals, particularly children, including those living outside their communities, to have access, when possible, to an education in their own culture and provided in their own language;
- G. BCAFN working alongside the Union of BC Indian Chiefs and the First Nations Summit as the First Nations Leadership Council (FNLC), has been directed by resolution from First Nations to wholly reform the current Indigenous child welfare system in BC, including working with federal and provincial governments to develop First Nations-supported legislation, policies, and practices that recognize and affirms Indigenous child welfare systems;
- H. the First Nations Education Steering Committee has a mandate to facilitate discussion about education matters affecting First Nations in BC by disseminating information and soliciting input from First Nations. The primary goal is to promote and support the provision of quality education to First Nations learners in BC;

Terry Teegee, BC Regional Chief

- I. BCACCS helps Indigenous communities develop high quality, culturally grounded, spiritually enriching, community child care services that are based in the child's culture, language and history;
- J. under the Canada Wide Early Learning and Child Care \(CW-ELCC\) agreement $30.0M is available in 2022-23 to provide funding for the creation of new distinctions-based child care spaces for First Nations, Métis and Inuit/urban families, and the province is seeking input from Title and Rights holders regarding how this funding will be accessed.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

1. the BCAFN Chiefs-in-Assembly reaffirm that First Nations have an inherent right to self-determination and that the proper Title holders must be supported in resumption of jurisdiction over our children and families, including early learning and child care;
2. the BCAFN Chiefs-in-Assembly direct the Regional Chief, working with the BC Assembly of First Nations and the First Nations Summit as the First Nations Leadership Council, to continue engaging with the provincial and federal governments, along with the First Nations Education Steering Committee and BC Aboriginal Child Care Society, as appropriate, on ways to best to support First Nations with early learning and child care in their communities and with regard to any implications for First Nations education;
3. the BCAFN Chiefs-in-Assembly call on the provincial and federal governments to work with the First Nations Leadership Council, supported by the First Nations Education Steering Committee and the BC Aboriginal Child Care Society, to immediately create an interim framework to flow funding under the Canada Wide Early Learning and Child Care Agreement (CW-ELCC) to First Nations; and
4. the BCAFN Chiefs-in-Assembly call on the provincial and federal governments to engage in Government to Government dialogue with the proper Title and Rights holders regarding a permanent funding arrangement for early learning and child care dollars available under the CW-ELCC.
